Subject: Re: Items to be considered at the Commission Business Meeting - Week of February 5, 2018

I have received a request of prejudice from Dec v Johnson in request to deny petition for rehearing. I involving surveillance vaccinations and employment taxes, political municipalities and violations of code regulations and just manipulation of rate and tariff charges at high levels of govt and tax lien on these companys and many others for there executive agenda on me. prohibiting me from sending timely emails of objecti9ns and violations due to postal service isolation and vehicle convince of disability. duke energy and there banking section using cocaine and opioids to make excuses of higher charges over federal investigations and hud from executive actions taken on carbon and clean energy and homeland security bills earmarks funded, as an excuse of of higher over charges at levels of national security....dismissing from prejudice is a violation of civil rights and fairness due to other investigations of abuse of power from the us office of special counsel. i would motion the Pse to DNA transcript employment and healthcare regulations and failure to present withholding evidence from exhibits a that should have been drawn from 2014. dec state's when power and accounts were activated and stopped but failed to motion 2014 over charges and moved into 2015.
